WELCOME to FR. ADAM PANTALEO!

This week our parish welcomes a priest of the Archdiocese of Toronto, Fr. Adam Pantaleo, to St. Alphonsus Rectory where he will reside for the next few years while serving as priest-chaplain of campus ministry at the University of Trent and Sir Stanford Fleming College, Peterborough. Fr. Adam was born and raised in Mississauga, entered St. Augustine's Seminary in 2015, and was ordained a priest for the Archdiocese of Toronto in 2022. He served as an associate pastor for two years at St. Michael's Cathedral, Toronto, and for two years at Merciful Redeemer Parish, Mississauga. Fr. Adam will be working full-time with campus ministry, but you may see him around the parish and at Mass from time to time. Please pray for Fr. Adam as he settles into a new ministry in his service as a priest after the Heart of Christ.

SUMMER CHURCH SUPPORT

The summer months provide a welcome break for the families of our parish. Many are away almost every weekend at cottages and camps. Please keep in mind that the bills keep coming in even when you are away. We encourage you to continue financial support for Your parish of St. Alphonsus Liguori throughout the lazy, hazy days of summer. Sign up for pre-authorized giving or drop your envelopes off in the collection before you go away (it's okay to postdate cheques) or when you return from vacation. Forms for pre-authorized giving are also available at stalphonsus.net under Next Steps → Financial Support. You just need a void cheque or letter with account information from the bank.

Other ways are e-transfer to office@stalphonsus.net or by credit card to Make A Gift at stalphonsus.net.
